

N O T I C E

Your presence at this event demonstrates that you have been induced to participate in this unlawful and criminal effort to obtain the property in question from the judicially determined sole owner of it in order to pay a "debt" claimed against a judicially determined non-owner of that property, for which the lawful owner has absolutely no responsibility under the law.

A WARRANTY DEED IN TRUST, filed as Winnebago County Recorder Document Number 9528856, transferred Title, on October 22, 1993, from Harriet P. Vance, as an individual who was the then sole owner of the property in question, to Harriet P. Vance as Trustee under a Trust Agreement dated October 22, 1993 and known as Thousand Hills Trust (see copy available for your inspection).

Winnebago County Associate Judge J. Todd Kennedy entered a FINAL JUDGMENT ORDER, in Case No. 97 ED 1 on October 27, 1998, and therein determined that: (A) "All defendants other than Harriet P. Vance as Trustee under a Declaration of Trust dated October 22, 1993, known as the Thousand Hills Trust No. 1, have been dismissed with prejudice or defaulted pursuant to prior court orders."; and (B) "The remaining interested party (in the property in question) is Harriet P. Vance as Trustee under a Declaration of Trust dated October 22, 1993, known as Thousand Hills Trust No. 1." (see copy available for your inspection).

At the "open house" conducted on Saturday, July 15, 2000, Attorney Tom Lester, acting as Bankruptcy Trustee, stated to me that Clarence L. Vance has no ownership interest in the property in question to transfer, yet he persists in his unlawful and criminal effort to "sell" property of the judicially determined sole owner of it to "pay" a "debt" for which that lawful owner has absolutely no responsibility under the law.

This unlawful event is the direct result of the actions of a Bankruptcy Judge which demonstrate that either: (A) He is incompetent in that he is unable to comprehend evidence submitted to him; or (B) He has been corrupted and is acting under a malign influence or on behalf of a vested interest.

If this unlawful event concludes as intended, the lawful holder of title to the judicially determined sole owner of the property in question will probably be jailed, possibly for the rest of her natural life, when she rightly and justly refuses the "order" of said Judge that she "execute all documents necessary to vest title to the Farm Property in the name of the Trustee or his assignee", even though she, as lawful title holder, is absolutely not responsible under the law for the "debt" the Trustee is attempting to "collect" in violation of the law.

If you participate in this unlawful event in a manner that is adverse to the interests and well being of the judicially determined sole owner of the property in question, you: (A) Will become a party to the fraud and theft that is being perpetrated against said owner; (B) May be subject to prosecution for activity that is defined in State and Federal Law as a felony and, if convicted, is punishable by several years in a State or Federal penitentiary; (C) May be subject to civil litigation for damages resulting from the unlawful and unjust incarceration of the present lawful holder of title and/or physical displacement of the judicially determined sole owner of the property in question; and (D) Will knowingly involve yourself in an unlawful and criminal effort to destroy the integrity of Title Deeds to property as we know and cherish them in this country.

If the court validated Title Deed to the property in question has no value, then what value do you think any present or future Title Deed of yours will have?
