NOTICE OF APPEAL TO THE ILLINOIS SUPREME COURT

An appeal is taken from the order described below.

1. To the Illinois Supreme Court as a matter of right pursuant to Illinois Supreme Court Rule 603.

2. Name of appellant and address to which notices shall be sent:
Clarence L. Vance
2203 Halsted Rd.
Rockford, IL 61103

3. Appellant appears Pro Se and does not want an attorney appointed at this time.

4. Date of Order appealed from:

December 1, 2006. The timely filed Motion directed against the December 1, 2006 Order was denied on February 12, 2007.

5. No conviction.

6. No sentence.

7. Nature of order appealed from:

The December 1, 2006 Order failed to consider that the charge in each of the above styled matters is based entirely on a document issued in a Federal proceeding in disregard of the 28 U.S.C. 1257 absence of subject matter jurisdiction. The validity of said United States Statute, supported by the Rooker-Feldman doctrine of the U. S. Supreme Court, is drawn in question, and said Federal Statute is effectively held invaled, by the December 1, 2006 Order.

Dated: March 13, 2007

Respectfully submitted,
